

AIDE ET ACTION'S « EDUCATION & COVID-19 » WEBINARS

Webinar #1: Inclusion of the most marginalised

Thursday 3rd December 2020, 10:00-12:00 (Paris time)

The series of webinars « Education & Covid-19 » aims at improving the knowledge of AEA's educational response to the pandemic in its territories of intervention, and facilitating the internal sharing of experiences and good practices.

The first webinar of the series will go over the strategies for ensuring the inclusion and return to school of the most marginalised children. The examples will focus on the way to support girls, disabled children, ethnic or linguistic minorities, migrants and refugees, etc. to go back to school and to staying in school.

PROGRAMME:

- Introduction – Mahfou Diouf, International Research-Innovation Director
- Presentation of the impact of Covid-19 on education at the global level – Vanessa Martin, Responsible for information and advocacy
- Presentation of AEA South Asia's strategy in response to Covid-19 – Daniel Umi, Director Migration & Education South Asia
- Presentation of AEA Vietnam's strategy in response to Covid-19 – Tu Nguyen, Vietnam Country Director
- Presentation of AEA Africa's strategy in response to Covid-19 – Berei Tcha, Coordinator of the BECITO territory
- Conclusions and prospects